

Please give us your feedback

Parents & Co Family Learning

We would like to develop our work helping parents, carers and their children to join in learning together and would like some feedback from you on the sorts of activities that you would find useful.

We have a questionnaire on our website at www.elfridacamden.org.uk and we would be grateful for your responses – we can also email or post it to you or carry out a telephone interview – let us know if you are interested by calling Lindsay on 020 7424 1615.

Do you find our newsletter useful?

We want to make sure our newsletter is getting the most useful information out and reaching the people we want it to get to. It would be great if you could help us by filling in the short questionnaire below and either sending it back to us at ERC (address overleaf), or filling it in online at our website.
