

IMPROVE YOUR SKILLS IN WORKING WITH GROUPS OF PARENTS

2 half-day workshops at Elfrida Rathbone Camden (7 Dowdney Close, London NW5 2BP) for practitioners who want to use groups to improve outcomes for service users:

BUILDING YOUR CONFIDENCE IN WORKING WITH GROUPS

Date: Wednesday 3rd December from 10am to 12pm

A workshop for group work/ parenting practitioners working within a variety of settings wanting to gain in confidence and knowledge. This workshop will give participants the opportunity to develop:

- their confidence as group work/parenting practitioners and recognise their strengths and expertise in carrying out their roles within their organisation's settings
- their skills as group and parenting practitioners
- in identifying the group of parents that they work with and adapting their style and courses to meet those needs

PLANNING YOUR GROUPWORK PROGRAMME

Date: Wednesday 21st January from 9.45am to 11.45am

A workshop enabling group workers/practitioners and those working within the field to think, devise and construct a course tailored to the meet the needs of their unique client group within the community.

The course will include the following:

- developing strategies and approaches for consultation with parents
- drawing up and designing courses targeted to specific groups' needs
- developing you and your organisations unique style of working and exploring ways to create your own parenting programmes

These workshops will be led by Jo-Ann Lewis and Sipora Levy who have been delivering and leading ERC's programme of parent support groups for over ten years. For further information please email lindsay@elfridacamden.org.uk or call 020 7424 1615. The fee for each workshop is £50 per person.
