

The Catherine Capaldi awards

Catherine Capaldi was a young woman who made a difference

Catherine worked hard for equality and to raise awareness of the problems faced by people with disabilities

The Catherine Capaldi awards celebrate Catherine's life, hopes and ideas

The awards will also support the inclusion of people with disabilities in tackling the problems affecting their lives

The awards will be given to a person or a group of people with disabilities who

- find answers to problems faced by people with disabilities

- break down barriers faced by people with disabilities

- improve access and inclusion for people with disabilities

How do I apply for an award?

The application form for the awards is on the Elfrida Rathbone Camden website
